SOCIAL\EMOTIONAL FUNCTIONING

NOT FOR USE

Examples of Support

- Consistent and structured class routines (clean schedules, routines, rules and expectations)
 - Frequent staff intervention to manage behaviour
 - Direct interventions required to prevent or stop class disruption
 - Very explicit behaviour intervention techniques
 - Specialized behavioural/counselling supports
- Intensive Individualized Programming
- Use of same physical restraint.
 - Use of supervised time-out procedures (removal from classroom environment)
 - Unique and highly structured learning and positive behaviour support approaches
 - Safety Planning
